Spread The Word

Help us raise awareness about the hurtfulness of the R-word by pledging and sharing your stories year-round.

Spread the Word to End the World

“Our campaign asks people to pledge to stop saying the R word as a starting point toward creating more accepting attitudes and communities for all people. Language affects attitudes and attitudes affect actions.”

R word is supported by Special Olympics and Best Buddies and over 200 organizations from around the world.

Your Stories

FEBRUARY 14, 2017 | NORTH AMERICA: ARKANSAS

This is a horrible word

By Madison Scott

SPREAD THE WORD 03.01.

Plan now for our annual day of awareness by organizing signings, rallies and other events.

Pledge Your Support

“I pledge and support the elimination of the derogatory use of the r-word from everyday speech and promote the acceptance and inclusion of people with intellectual disabilities.”

What is a Respect Rally?

Simplest Answer:

A gathering of individuals helping educate and positively influencing everyone they come in contact with to act respectfully, regardless if they know them personally or just visiting with them in passing.

(Think of the r-word as “respect” instead).

WHY DO WE HOST A RESPECT RALLY?

Unified Champion School

- Youth Leadership, Whole School Engagement, and Inclusive Sports
 - Able to be a Unified Champion School by meeting a minimum of 2 of these 3 components
- SO College at Rocky Mountain College
 - “Created by college students for college students, the SO College network connects college students and individuals with intellectual disabilities through sport to build friendships and help lead the social justice movement of Special Olympics.”
- Short answer:
 - We host a Respect Rally on campus not to just educate and influence people, but also to promote Youth Leadership and Whole School Engagement.

Pledge Day 2015

Respect Rally 2016

First “Respect Rally” held at
Rocky Mountain College.

Renamed “Pledge Day” to reflect on being respectful in general while also encouraging
others to not say the R-word.
