

Big Sky Watershed Corps

Big Sky Watershed Corps is an AmeriCorps program that assists Montana's watershed communities to make a measurable difference in local conservation efforts while strengthening the experience of young professionals.

WHO are the program partners?

MONTANA
CONSERVATION CORPS

WHEN

do AmeriCorps members serve?

27 Full Time Members for 10.5 months
January 2017 – November 2017

Watershed Health and Protection

Education and Outreach

Volunteer Generation & Capacity Building

Member Development

4 AmeriCorps Trainings

- Orientation & CBI
- Education & Outreach
- Technical Skills
- End of Term

Conferences

- MT Environmental Educators
- MT Watershed Symposium
- MACD Convention
- Service Symposium
- Watershed Spring Training

4+ Years of Getting Things Done

In the first 4 years of the program, Members have:

- Collected 50,685 data points at 815 sites
- Educated and trained 32,120 students and community stakeholders
- Recruited 4,514 community members in volunteer positions

95% Professional Job Placement Rate

QUESTIONS?

