

Montana
Energy Corps

Creating sustainable energy solutions through community service

www.energycorps.org

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS YEAR ONE 2009-2010

Montana Commission on Community Service Meeting
October 4, 2010

NCAT MISSION

National Center for Appropriate Technology Helping people by championing small-scale, local and sustainable solutions to reduce poverty, promote healthy communities, and protect natural resources.

ENERGY CORPS OBJECTIVES

- Provide hands on energy assistance to those that need it most
- Build energy awareness, education and outreach
- Develop community solutions for sustainable energy consumption
- Prepare members for future green-collar careers

ENERGY CORPS YEAR ONE HIGHLIGHTS

- Awarded 10 MSY to provide energy services in communities across Montana
- Partnered with 8 organizations in 7 communities, including 3 tribes
- Member orientation and trainings, NorthWestern Energy Expos, MLK National Day of Service
- Hired NCAT VISTA Alum Todd Hunkler
- Awarded CNCS National Direct grant to expand Energy Corps to Arkansas, Iowa and Pennsylvania

Where we are in Montana....

MEMBER TRAININGS

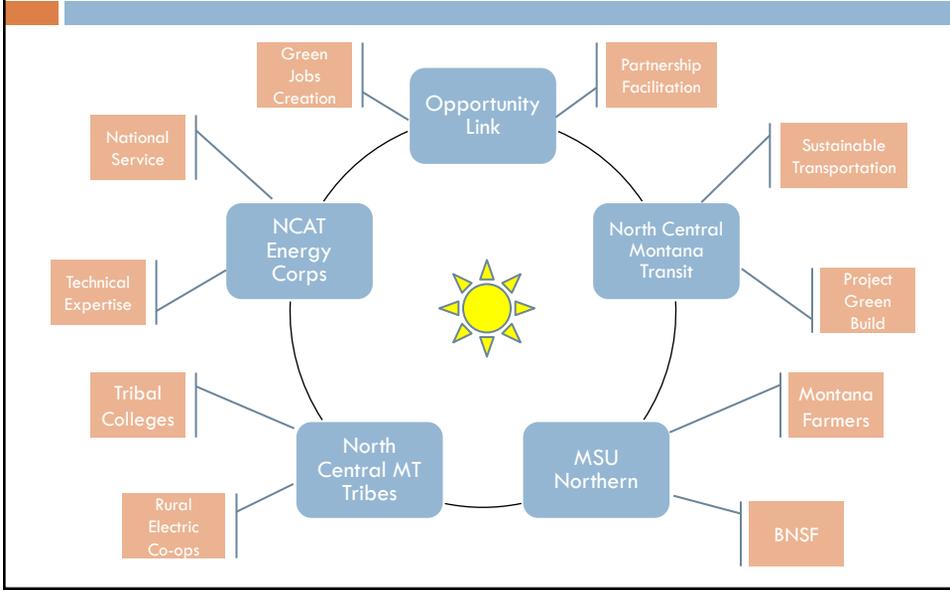

ENERGY FAIRS AND WEATHERIZATION

ENERGY ASSESSMENTS AND GARDENS

BUILDING COMMUNITY AND REGIONAL NETWORKS

MLK NATIONAL DAY OF SERVICE

IMPACTS OF SERVICE

- Hands on energy assistance to over 500 entities in Montana
 - Weatherizations, energy assessments, CFL light bulbs distributed, alternative energy activities
- Over 150 community volunteers recruited
- Energy education and outreach to over 3,000 Montana residents
- Energy action networks initiated in 5 communities

w w w
·
e n e r g y

The screenshot displays the Montana Energy Corps website. The header features the logo and the tagline "Creating sustainable energy solutions through community service". The main content area includes a "Mission Statement" section with a circular logo, a "How We're Helping Montana" section, and a "Get Involved" section. The website is designed with a clean, professional layout using a color palette of greens, yellows, and oranges.