- g. Commissioner Updates – engage with GOCS since October? Community opportunities?
 - i. Commissioner Wetzel: The Department of Labor and Industry is bringing tribal employment leaders and entities together Dec 16 at Billings Convention Center to share resources and opportunities. All are welcome.
 - ii. Commissioner Kipp: Involvement with the Last Best Alumni Council.
 - iii. Commissioner Coleman: Had the opportunity to attend Big Sky Watershed Corps (BSWC), AgCorps and FWP end of service presentations. Department of Natural Resources and Conservation has hosted AmeriCorps members. It was very uplifting to hear what they accomplished.
 - iv. Vice Chair Lawler: Attended close of service for AgCorps and FWP. Seeing the full circle from talking about the grants to the impact on the members and the community they serve is cool.
 - v. Commissioner Hawkins: Had the privilege to speak at the AgCorps and FWP close of service and reflect on my AmeriCorps experience. I also donate blood every 8 weeks. Encourage all to donate if you can.
 - vi. Commissioner English: Attended the BSWC end of service presentations. It is encouraging to see what these members do. AmeriCorps Seniors, RSVP, has an annual Friendsgiving to recognize seniors for their work in the community. Was able to talk to them about the Threshold of Life memorial.
 - vii. Commissioner Pace: Shout out to Commissioner Nelson. About 8-9 years ago, funding for the High School House was cut in half. As we have been building this program back up, she has done a wonderful job advocating the program and promoting jobs for students. This fall we hosted Mike Rowe and Governor Greg Gianforte at the High School House site. The program was also in the Governor's 7th day of giving where he donated a part of his salary. These are good kids who participate in this program, and it means a lot to them for the Governor and Mike Rowe to come out and support them.
