VII. 1140a Public Comment

- a. Bryan Wilson, BSWC: Thank you for everything. The grant reviews and feedback are very helpful.
- b. Amanda Coyle, Ag Corps: Thanks for making the grant review process approachable, appreciate your time.
- c. Director Sadowski: Chair Harbage, we are grateful for your commitment and time on our Commission and for being helpful with this transition of Chair. Thank you to the GOCS staff for taking on additional tasks and making this year’s ServeMontana Symposium happen. AmeriCorps Seniors, please nominate individuals for the ServeMontana awards so they can be recognized for their outstanding service.
- d. Angela Carter: We are a new Senior Companion program in Billings providing in-home care for low-income seniors. We will merge with another organization this summer and have completed first 1,000 hours of service.

- e. Theresa Boyer: We had a member who was not comfortable taking the small stipend, so she donates it back to the other seniors who need it.
- f. Angela Nelmark: One of our volunteers, Grandma Dan, is the longest volunteer, serving 36 years. She is 94 and served at Woodyear Elementary School in the after-school program. She was supposed to retire so we gave her an award and celebrated her on Thursday. We got a call on Monday that she was back at school because “she didn’t know what else to do.”
- g. Samara Lynde: I am very grateful for the 96 Senior volunteers ranging from 56-96 years old. They do many things including delivering 200 meals a day and the Go Getter Program which provides rides to medical appointments. The volunteers bring community to their clients.
- h. Jill Sears, AC: We have been in a handful of Commission meetings including other states and it is a real testament how strong service is in Montana with how many Commissioners sit on this board and how involved they are. Thank you for your service to your state and our nation.
- i. Amy Busch, AC: Montana is about serving each other and it stands out because Director Sadowski is a great leader and brings all streams of service together. Thank you, Chair Harbage, for your service.
- j. Kimberly Boyd: Last year we did a Veteran’s Stand Down in Richland. It was amazing to be there with the big crowd as the veterans took down the flag. It was a very impactful experience.
- k. Carly Collins: The Billings Metro VISTA project is in its 15th year and VISTAs have raised over $5.5 million and served at 60 host sites all over the state.
- l. Lisa LaMere: We had a dedicated Foster Grandparent in Billings who had to retire as she went blind. We still call her to check in as she cannot be with the kids at the daycare which was her reason to get out of bed.

VIII. 1145a Adjourn; Lunch provided as part of the ServeMontana Symposium

- a. Chair Hubbard adjourned meeting at 11:33am.

Next regularly scheduled Commission meeting on Thursday, June 5, 2025
